SPONSOR'S AFFIDAVIT AND EVIDENCE OF ANNUAL CASH SUPPORT

WHAT DOES THIS AFFIDAVIT MEAN?

By completing this affidavit, you are swearing to the U.S. government that you will provide this student with a specific amount of money, from your own financial resources, for every year he or she is going to study at the New York Academy of Art and live in the U.S. You are also proving that you can afford the support you are promising with the documentary evidence you have attached.

Before signing it, it is important to understand that you are making a financial commitment to the student that should not be broken. Sponsors who fail to provide that promised support force students to drop out of school and cause pain and suffering. Do not expect that the students will be able to help support costs through employment. Employment is strictly controlled by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and very limited

HOW TO COMPLETE THIS FORM:

- Fill this form out in English (or have it officially translated). Promise only the amount of money you are able to give. The most common reason we reject affidavits is that we do not believe a sponsor can afford to give as much as promised.
- Sign and date the affidavit.
- Attach the supporting the evidence listed below. The affidavit will not be accepted without the required supporting evidence.
- Give the student the original documents and have him or her submit them electronically or make photocopies to scan, mail or fax to us with the application for Form I-20. The student will need to keep the originals to present to control at the visa interview.

SUPPORTING EVIDENCE REQUIRED

1. Proof of income (any of the following) with most recent pay stub:
 - Income tax returns to receipts, or
 - Pay stubs for last six months, or
 - Bank/Investment statements for the last six months
2. Bank statement in your name only. A monthly statement of balances and deposits.
 - If another person's name appears on your bank statement, that person also must complete a separate affidavit. A letter from a bank officer will not be accepted.
