New York Academy of Art Sixth Annual Summer Exhibition

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

JUNE 21 – JULY 28 2012

OPENING RECEPTION THURSDAY JUNE 21 6 - 8PM

Flowers is pleased to announce that it will host the New York Academy of Art's Sixth Annual Summer Exhibition. The show will open with a reception on Thursday, June 21 from 6 - 8pm and will remain on view through July 28, 2012.

This highly anticipated group show brings together a wide range of new work by more than 50 established and emerging talents. Comprised of paintings, drawings, limited-edition prints and sculpture, the chosen works will be selected from over 500 submissions by jurors; David Ebony, Managing Editor, Art in America; Matthew Flowers, Managing Director, Flowers Gallery; Carrie Rebora Barratt, Associate Director for Collections and Administration, The Metropolitan Museum of Art and Steven Zevitas, President and Publisher, New American Paintings.

The New York Academy of Art was founded in 1982 by artists and collectors, including early trustees Andy Warhol and Tom Wolfe. The Academy's MFA program promotes the development of an artist's personal vision and the creation of vital contemporary art by building on the enduring traditions of figurative painting, drawing and sculpture. The Academy is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit educational and cultural institution.

Flowers is an internationally recognized gallery with locations in London and New York. The program in both the UK and US comprises all media by established and emerging artists, is an active publisher of prints and multiples, and has a growing department in contemporary international photography.
