NEW YORK ACADEMY OF ART

Summer Undergraduate Residency Program

The New York Academy of Art offers a month-long intensive Summer Undergraduate Residency Program (SURP) in New York City for ambitious undergraduates and recent graduates. Students admitted to the program have the opportunity to take Academy classes, use an Academy studio and exhibit their work at the Academy at the end of the residency. An extensive itinerary of gallery openings, museum visits and private tours of artist studios complete the immersion in New York's art world.

All students in the Summer Residency take five required courses:

- Drawing: Exploration of the Human Form
- Theory: The Trajectory of Contemporary Artistic Practice
- Cultural Studies: Museums, Galleries, Artist Studios
- Dialogues in Painting: Traditional Materials
- Sculpting the Figure: Perceptual Modeling

Scan the QR code for detailed program info. The program is ideal for students interested in pursuing an MFA after their undergraduate degrees as well as students who wish to experience a unique opportunity in an inspiring creative environment.

ADMISSIONS & ELIGIBILITY

Acceptance to SURP is competitive and based on portfolio review.

The program is open to current US and international undergraduates, either enrolled in an art program or with a demonstrated talent in fine art. Applicants must declare their preferred session of attendance on their application form.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Academy Merit Awards range from $500-$2,750 and cover tuition and fees for participants. The Academy grants three residency participants in each session a full scholarship in the form of tuition remission.
