Affordable Food Resources

The Academy Campus Food Pantry

The purpose of the campus food pantry is to provide supplemental food and other necessities to current students who need this kind of assistance.

To access the pantry, please register at <https://forms.gle/1es3bekkr8o2zy8T6>

Once you register, you'll receive a Pantry ID Number. Please don't lose this number – it will be your identification when placing grocery requests. In an effort to keep pantry users anonymous amongst students, staff, and volunteers, we will use the Pantry ID Numbers in place of names. Only Student Services will have access to your registration information.

Grocery requests will be placed through a google form. A volunteer will then assemble your order to be picked up or delivered to your studio.

The College Student Pantry

<http://www.collegestudentpantry.org/>

The College Student Pantry is a food pantry program providing groceries for any college or graduate student who needs them, regardless of financial situation or institutional affiliation. The idea for the pantry arose out of a recognition among students at NYU and the New School that student food insecurity is a significant and growing problem in New York. The College Student Pantry seeks to provide healthy, nutritious food to any student who needs it, and to join in existing student efforts to raise awareness of and address the problem of student food insecurity on campuses in NYC
